Mr H M Beardsley,

Salt Lake City, Utah.

Dear Sir:

The following are conditions for operating the eating houses on the Rio Grande Western Ry, namely; Castilla Springs, Helper and Green River.

The Company's buildings, furniture and fixtures to be properly cared for, and kept in good condition, natural wear and tear considered.

Ice, coal and light will be furnished free at Helper and Green River, and for the hotel at Castilla Springs. The expense of handling coal from the Company coal bins or cars to hotels, will be borne by you, and the same to apply to ice.

Employes going to work at such hotels will be passed in free.

Supplies for the hotels to be carried by freight and express free, including hay for cows furnishing milk for the respective hotels.

Rates to be charged; passengers not to exceed 75¢ and employes of the railway 25¢ a meal, and meals ordered by the Company for passengers on delayed trains, to be at the rate of 50¢ a meal.

Bottled wine and beer can be furnished only to passengers at the meal table, and under no circumstances whatever will any kind of liquor be sold to employes, whether at dining table or not.

The hotels to be conducted in a manner satisfactory to the Railway Company.

Term of this agreement to be one year from date, with privilege of two years, upon sixty days written notice of intention, prior to the expiration of this agreement, and it is understood that the foregoing shall not in any way conflict with the operating of buffet or dining cars.

Yours truly,

A E Welby,

General Superintendent.
